

MEXICO.

The "sick man" of the West is evidently no better. A dispatch from Washington says the Government has tiens to Juarez for the restoration of peace, on the ground that Miramon is nearly powerless, and that these petitions are signed by all except the clergy and those whom they control. The advantage that it takes two tion, it is very clear, is, not whether peace is desirable, but whether it can be brought about. If the Church party will neither ask for it nor consent to it, and if Miramon obstinately refuses to be brought to terms, I shall, with a resistance the state of war—also public advice which to put at all justify the hope that the troubles of Mexico are over. On the one hand, it is stated that the Church party would drop Miramon, if they dared, and substitute one of the brothers Cnexas in his place. Pacheco, the new the object of creating a new distraction. The plot was nearly successful, but was defeated by the suspicions aroused by the presence of Aurchiano. The result was, the establishment of a more strict guard, and the

from attacking. The negotiations for peace interrupted by the Spanish minister, in these distracting circumstances, do not seem to prosper, while there are persons who believe that a combined French and Spanish fleet will appear at Vera Cruz in the course of three or four of the English and French Governments, and their resolution of the Mexican difficulties is to establish a monarchy with Miramon at its head as Emperor. This we presume to be about as probable as that the Prince arrived at Petersburg, Va., on Monday, from the Sombrero (Guano) Island, and furnished The Express of that city with the following particulars of the outbreak on the part of the negroes:

ago, to meet with a brother free-mason, named Snow, who arrived from New-England in the schooner Eastern Star, of which he was first mate. With him he made a temporary change of place, Snow taking the foremanship of the island, and the foreman taking and were obtained from the neighboring islands on the West Indies belonging to those nations, and were consequently always hostile to Americans, on account of the latter's slavery proclivities, grew dissatisfied with their new superintendent, and meditated every variety of revenge. Only four of them however, advantage of the foreman as he was stooping on the ground below, and hurled a tremendous lump of guano at his head, crushing his skull with the blow, and left him for dead on the ground. Considerable commotion followed among the whites, upon the discovery of the agrees, who rose en masse and took possession of the plant. The white employees, who numbered only twelve, were compelled to submit to the revolt, but were unharmed, since they remained non-committal, being too much intimidated to attempt to suppress the ade was not given up, and when Captain Brown attempted to return to shore from the Warren they collected on the wharf and stoned him until he was forced to take refuge back upon his bark.

"Mr. Elliot expected in the course of a few days to be able to return to the island with a vessel."

"The negroes had refused all offers or demands to return to work; but, holding possession of the island,

PROBABLE MURDER IN THE FIRST WARD.—At a late hour last night, two young men, named James O'Donnell and John Gilhouly, got into an altercation at the corner of Cedar street and Trinity-place, con-

During the height of the altercation Gilhously drew a knife and suddenly plunged it into the abdomen of O'Donnell, inflicting a wound from which the intestines protruded.

Sergeant Denton, the officer in command of the Trinity-place station, immediately dispatched a number of his men to search for Gibbons, but, as it was 2 o'clock to the amount of $368,000,000. Of this amount the Bank of Moscow has $154,000,000 loaned on 622 estates; and the Bank of St. Petersburg $106,500,000 on 7,491 estates.